Chapter 1: Hogwarts & Bullies

Alice's pov

Hello there my name is Alice Wilson. I am the daughter of Wade Wilson but you might know him better as DeadPool. My father moved me to London after my mother went into hidding. That was a few month's ago. He got a place out in the country side.

I just turned 11 and I got my letter. My mother is a witch and she went to a schoo for her kind. Now it's my turn and father is ok with me going away for school. I think he and mother are going to meet up when I'm at school. He's body finally healed. It took him years but he finally healed. Mother took us to this pub a few times, we headed to go to get my stuff. When I was younger, dad got a lot of sexy looks when we went shopping here.

Now dad is making sure I have every thing and make sure I had all my weapons. When he found out I was like him, he started to train me to be the best killer like him. _**I'm not letting my baby get raped by some cock sucker! ! You will be able to get them off and make them pay.**_ he said with a smile that creeped me out. At first I didn't think I was going to like it, but I really liked it. At first mother didn't know if I had any magic till I made my first kill.

Mother never killed anyone cause she didn't want to be like her family. She never cared that dad killed. So now that she is hiding I have to hid my real hair color, if not I will be hunted down with her. I made my hair go blonde like dad's, but I'm keeping my eyes the same. Tomorrow is Sep. 1st so I be going to Hogwarts.

I really dont know why would anyone would fucken name a school that. Really Hogwarts? I guess they thought it would be funny or some shit like that. "Hey baby girl. Your ready for your first day of school?" dad said as he came in to tuck me in. I looked up at him. "I guess so." I said back to him as he kissed the top of my head.

"You know I'm going off till next summer. So if you make friends and they invite you over on your breaks, you can go with them. Cause you can take care of your self." he said as he sat next to my bed. "I know I will miss you. If you see mom tell her I miss her and I love her." I said softly and I saw his eyes change a little. "I will baby girl. Get some sleep." he said and I did.

The next day we got up early and headed for King's Cross. Since dad can't get on the platform. I will say my good-bye's outside of it. As we walked he would look around. I could smell normal people and magic people. I saw some of the magic people walk into a wall. That must be the spot to get on the platform.

We got closer and I noticed some of the other woman checking out my father. That pissed me off cause he belongs with my mother. "Ok baby girl have fun and I see you next summer." dad said to me as he hugged me. "Thank's daddy. I see you next summer." I said before I pulled away. Then he turned and left.

When I couldn't see him I turned around and pushed my cart on to the platform. When I came on the other side every one would turn and look at me. Then as I walked I could hear them start to talk. "Who is she?" was mostly what they said. Then they would say I'm a muggle born or a orphen. I kept my head down as I made my way to the back of the deep red train. I really don't like how they are looking at me. I got to the back and dragged my trunk into the train. I would have just picked it up with eas, but a normal 11 year old can't do it.

Once I got my trunk put away. I sat down next to the window. Then a soft knock came at my door, I got up and went to the door. I saw a boy around the same age as me. He has short sandy blonde hair and pretty blue eys. I opened the door. "S-s-sorry to bother y-y-you but can I-I-I sit you if you dont mind?" he asked in a very shy voice.

By how his body is he must not be use to talking to others. I've seen others like that, kids that are kept from the world. I smiled softly to him. "Yes you can let me help you with your trunk." I said and he smiled softly at me as I opened the door more. My hand brushed against his softly and I saw his face turned a soft pink.

We pulled his trunk in and put it with mine. I sat back down in my place and he sat across from me. "I'm Remus Lupen." Remus said softly to me. It was like he was scared of me. If he knew what I could do I would understand, but we just meant and he knows nothing of me. "Its nice to meet you Remus I'm Alice Wilson." I said with a smile.

Now that I look at his face I can see light scars on his face. I never seen scares like them before. "Its nice to meet you to Alice." Remus said but before we could talk more the door was opened. Then two boy's came in laughing. I turned my eyes towards them and looked at them.

"Oh! Sorry we thought this was empty. Can we sit here?" said the one with the glasses. Remus looked at me and I didn't smile at them. "Sure whatever." I said as I looked out of the window.

_**3rd person pov**_

Remus's heart started to beat faster when the pretter girl opened the door. When her hand Brust against his, Remus's face turned pink. When they started to talk he could see the light in her eyes, but when the other two can in the light faded from her eyes and something more animal like. Alice didn't help them with their trunks. Remus and Alice watch as the other to put their trunsh away and sat down.

"I'm James and this is Sirius." James said as he got a good look at Alice. Sirius was doing the same and he smiled at James. The two boys noticed how cute she is. Sirius could tell she didn't think much of them and he whispered that to James who smirked evilly. Then they started to talk about pranks. Alice looked at Remus who keeps sneaking looks at her. She smiled a little when she saw him blush.

Then James pointed his wand at Alice and hexed her blonde hair to a dark red color. Alice looked at her hair and then looked at James. James smiled but it faded fast cause the look she was giving him wasn't good. _**If looks could kill I would be died right now.**_ James thought. "Put my hair back now." she said in a low deadly voice.

Scared for his life James did what she asked. Remus looked at her as she looked back out of the window. She is a good person but piss her off and your in trouble. Remus couldn't help but to look at Alice. Alice is someone very different from anyone that Remus has very meant. Remus like's the color of her green eyes.

They seemed to changed to different shades of green. Right now they are a very pretty dark green, like a deep forest green. Remus really like how pretty her eyes are colored and shaped. Alice looked over at him and he blushed as he looked away. Alice smiled a little at Remus when he blushed. Sirius just looked over when Alice smiled.

Thinking that she thought the prank was funny the whispered to James about it. They found them selfs someone to try out new pranks. James guess that Alice just gave him that look but deep down she likes them. Oh how wrong he is.

They where almost there so they pulled on their robes. Alice didn't like this at all. This felt so weird and stupid wearing this. Remus saw the sour look on her face as the train stop. "What's wrong Alice?" Remus asked her softly. "I don't like this robe at all." Alice said softly back at him. Remus smiled a little at her. "You will get use to them as time goes by." Remus said to her as they walked off the train.

Alice shook her head at the boy. "I dont think so." she said as they made their way over to the big man that is call for first years. Then they made their way down a slop to the lake. "Three to a boat." the man said. Alice got into the boat with Remus and this other boy. "Hi I'm Peter." Peter said to them in a low voice. Remus and Alice told Peter their names, then Alice look across the black water. Its so soomth, it looks just like black glass.

It didn't take them long to get across the black lake. Then they got out of the tiney boats. Alice's shoes crunched on top of the gravel path way. They stopped at a huge wooden door. Then the big man knocked on the door. When he hand went to his side is when the door opened. "They are all yours." he said before he left. "I am Professor McGonagall. Follow me." she said in a brisk firm voice.

They followed her into the castle. Alice looked around and she never seen anything like this before. Its huge and old. Alice smiled a little as Professor McGonagall lead them to a small room. "Wait here till I come back." she said and they waited. Alice is pressed up agaিসnt Remus. This is a small room and there is a lot of kids here.

Alice felt Remus freezed when she was pressed up against him. "Sorry Remus they are pushing me." Alice whispered to him. Remus blushed a little as he looked down at her. "Its ok Alice." he said softly as Professor McGonagall came back. "Follow me please." she said and they did. They walked into the great hall. Alice's mouth fell open when she saw the ceiling.

"Wow." Alice said so low that no one could hear her. The other studens watched the smaller kids walk to the front of the great hall. "When I call your name you will come up here and put on the hat. After your house is called you will join their table." Professor McGonagall said before she started to call up the children.

Alice was the last one to be called up. "Wilson, Alice." Professor McGonagall said and Alice walked up and sat on the stool. Then Professor McGonagall placed the hat on top of her blonde hair. It went over Alice's bright green eyes. Then a small voice started to speak to her.

_**Hmmm you are the dauther to Tara Hatter. I didn't think she would have kids.**_ The voice said and Alice thought back. _**Why you say that for?**_ The voice chuckled softly._** I'm sorry my dear. When your mother came here and I was placed on top of her head. Tara swore she would never have children. She wanted to be the last bloodline in her family. **_Alice didn't understand.

_**You don't understand my child? The Hatter family is a dark family. She was the first to get out of it. Tara might not use the power from her family, but she does have great power. I can see that power in you as well. But I can see a lot of darkness in you.**_ The hats voice is full of sorrow. Alice growled a little._** I don't care about the darkness in me. That is what makes me who I am. I'm not good and I never want to be. **_Alice thought to the hat. The hat is in shock to hear a 11 year old say she dont want to be good.

_**Why don't you want to be good for?**_ The hat asked her. _**Cause good people can't do much to save the ones they love. I'm my fathers daughter and there are things that I've done that no one here has done.**_ Alice said and then the hat saw what she has done. _**I see. I know which house you be good in. Sadly this will break your mothers heart. Her only child going into the evil house of-**_ "Slytherin!" the hat yell the last part.

Professor McGonagall took off the hat and Alice got up and went to the Slytherin table. As she walked she looked at Remus who was looking at her with sad eyes. She smiled at him before she sat down. The other Slytherins didnt know what to make of her. When the food came out Alice ate like she hasn't eaten in years. The others looked at her not sure what her story is.

After the feast they headed to their common room. Alice looked around it before she headed off to bed. She has her own room and that is what she likes. The other never heard of a wizard family Wilson. If she is muggle born then they will have to deal with her. No mudbloods are welcome in this house.

_**Alice's pov**_

When I got up the next day and I have that feeling. I took my time in getting ready. The only good thing about having a robe on, is that I can hid a few of my weapons. I left my room and made my way to the common room. There was a lot of people in here. When I walked in they all looked at me. _**I wonder what they want with little old me?**_ I thought with a smile on my lips. "Look she is smiling at us." said a older student. "Where not here to be your friends mudblood." said another older student. Some of the younger ones was looking at me.

My mother told me what a mudblood was and that just pissed me off. Before they could blinking I moved so fast that the student that called me a mudblood was laying on the floor with me on his chest. I dug my knife into his shoulder blade. He let out a loud scream and very one moved away. "Listen to me you cock sucker. If you ever call me a mudblood I will cut off your cock and shove it down your fuck throat. Then I will hunt down your family and make sure they die inthe most painful way I can think of. Do I make my self clear?" I said in a low voice that every one had to lean in to hear me.

The guy couldn't speak but nodded his head. "Will what about the rest of you?" I said as I glared at them all. All they could do was nodd their heads. "Good. Now if any of you think you can take me down. I would love to see you fuckers try." I said with a laugh. I pulled out my knife and wiped the blood off it on his robes, before I put it back.

Every one moved to the side as I walked by. No one spoke or even breathed as I left the common room. I made my way to the great hall. I sat down and started to eat. Then a man came over to me and gave me a list of my classes. I saw Remus getting up and I got up and went over to him. "Hey Remus." I said and he smiled weakly at me. "Hi Alice. Is it ok for you to speak to me?" he said as he looked at a few Slytherins that was passing by. I looked at them and they all looked down at the ground. "I don't give a fuck if they like it or not. Your my first friend Remus. I'm not going to let us being in different house change that." I said as we headed for our first class.

I saw James and Sirius bulling some of the other first years. I hate people like that. They get a kick out causing others pain. That is one of the reasons I like this. I know my father dont like being call a hero but he is one in my eyes even though I want say that to his face. There are even more bader people out there then us.

Remus smiled at me softly. "I see. So no matter what they do you still going to be friends with me?" he said and the sound of his voice. He couldn't believe his ears. "I'm not scared of them. I will make sure they will never do anything to you Remus." I said with a smile back. I saw his eyes get a little wide. "You have a pretty smile Alice." Remus said making my face go red. I never had anyone out side my family say anything to me before.

"T-t-thanks Remus." I said as I moved some of my hair into my face so he wouldn't see how red my face is. I saw his own face turned pink. "Your welcome Alice." he said to me as we walked into our first class.
